EVERY SECOND COUNTS

Respectful. Resilient. Resourceful. Reflective. Responsible. Ready.

IN THE NEWS

Parking Update

On Wednesday, a representative from Essex Highways came to survey our parking situation before school in order to launch a parking initiative. Watch this space for the launch in May!

Infant Singers

On Monday, Class 2 wowed audiences at the Infant Music Festival. Mrs Hughes and Mr Rawlins said that the children sang their hearts out and were a credit to Montgomery. A huge well done to Class 2 and a thank you to parents and carers for your on-going support.

Ear ear!

On Monday, Year 4 had an exciting visit from Miss Aldridge, an audiologist. They discovered interesting facts about the human ear and learned how to take care of this sense. This supported their Science topic! Thank you Miss Aldridge.

Dinners Week 1 next week.

Thursday favourite is All Day Breakfast with Pancakes and Sauce

Dojos

MORE NEWS

Parent Consultations

We hope that you found your consultations informative on Tuesday and Wednesday and that you also found your child's assessment sheet useful. For those who did not attend, you will receive your child's targets and data sheet for checking over the next few days. We will be sending out parent questionnaires with your child's annual report in July inviting you to reflect on the school year.

Governor Afternoon

On Thursday afternoon, some of our governors came into school to see our Foundation lessons in action. They had a wonderful time and commented on how exciting the learning was for the children.
